UFirst Federal Credit Union

What we do

How does UFirst FCU protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

UFirst FCU regularly tests, assesses and adopts upgrades as necessary to its security measures.

How does UFirst FCU collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an Account or Apply for a Loan
- Make Deposits/Withdrawals or Pay Bills
- Use your Credit/Debit Card

We may also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
