

Board of Directors Nominee Biographies

James (Jim) Abdallah

James (Jim) Abdallah is a graduate of Clarkson University and is the current corporate Vice President at Architectural & Engineering Design Associates, P.C. (AEDA). With nearly two decades of construction and engineering experience, Jim is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the company, as well as the primary corporate liaison to AEDA's many clients.

Jim serves as the Chair of the City of Plattsburgh Planning Board; President of the Rural Preservation Company of Clinton County Board of Directors and is a member of the National Civil Engineering Honor Society (Chi Epsilon).

Jim has been a member of UFirst FCU since 2005. He is looking forward to serving his first term as a newly appointed member of the UFirst Board of Directors.